AT THE SEASIDE RESORTS. Cec-Mees and the Pantzer Brothers remain. The Sunday programme, 2:30 to 11 p. m., Manhattan, Brighton, Bergen Beach and

Anton Seidl's concerts at Brighton Beach silver, with handles decorated serve to attract crowds of music loveral different shades of green enamel. Gould and Burt, the Carters, Bonnie Goodcerts, 2:30 to 11 p. m.

At Hammerstein's Roof Garden Leopoldo Fregoll, the wonderful change attist, is still drawing tremendous crowds. "El Dorado," his latest creation and biggest hit, is a revelation indeed. The rapidity and completeness of the transitions from one impersonation to another and truthfulness mark this his latest effort. His performance lasts over an hour, and to the audicate it seems as though sixty different men and women were engaged in giving an evening's entertainment. Besides Fregoli At Hammerstein's Roof Garden Leopoldo thers on the bill this week will be Dewell, gymnast; Marshall and Nelson in songs, Techow's troupe of trained cats, Chares B. Ward, Mazuz and Mazette, May Howard, Sadie Fox, the Silves and the Olympic Grand Opera Quartet.

An excellent bill of features has been booked by Manager Amberg for the Grand Central Palace Roof Garden. The particutrly prominent feature will be Jarbeau in special programme of new songs and mitations. Stuart, the male soprano, and Albini, the magician, are other important attractions. The other entertainers are the Misses Rice and Haiver, Eily Goghlan Blockson and Page, Hartz, Mme. Letitia Crowl, the whistler, and the Chickering

For next week Mr. Pastor has engaged another attractive show, composed of the following: Bonnie Thornton, Lydia Barry Billy Carter, the banjo comedian; Annie Buckley, in character songs; Lew Bloom, scentric comedian; Mile. Carlini, with her troupe of dogs and monkeys; Eleanor Falk, Alburtus and Bertram, Daniel Kelly and Bessie Grey, Andy Lewis and Maud Elliott, Halliday and O'Brien, sketch team; Potter, Stoddard and St. John, Casey and Le Clair, and Tony Pastor in budget of songs.

Jennie Yeamans has concluded to be in swim with the other prominent vaudevillers and has accepted an engagement from Manager Hamilton to appear on the American Roof Garden this week. Willis P. Sweatnam, who made such a hit on the Casino Roof last week, will share the sonors with her. Katherine Howe, the fanous American Two Macs, the Donovans, Hooley and Morba, Ed. J. Hefferman, Tony Fernandez, Miss Bobby Burns, Edward French, the Sisters Sanford and Thomas and Queen constitute the remainder of the remarkable bill. To-night the usual Sunoof if the weather be favorable, in the heatre should it be raining. Pearl Audrews will make her last appearance.

To-night a grand Sunday programme has arranged for the Casino Roof, the performance to take place in the theatre should it rain. Annie Hart, Willis P. Sweatnam, Tony Fernandez, Mae Lowery and a number of others will appear, including Stuart, the male Patti.
